

About Magnolia Baseball Club

The Magnolia Baseball Club (MBC) was founded by MLB pitcher Jamie Moyer and his wife, Karen. The mission is to bring baseball back to the neighborhood. The goal is to develop young men using the game of baseball as a tool for preparation in the areas of teamwork and life. The commitment from the coaches, players and parents to the team they are involved with is much more than just playing a baseball game. RESPECT, LOYALTY, ETHICS, SPORTSMANSHIP, and COMMITMENT make up the Magnolia Baseball Club.

MBC sponsors four teams; a 13 and 14 year old team to compete in the Washington State Sandy Koufax League and a 15 and 16 year old team to compete in the Washington State Mickey Mantle League. It is our goal to keep kids from the 13's through the 16's each year.

" I have played baseball since I was 7 years old. This past year I played for the Magnolia Baseball Club's, U13 team and it was by far the best experience I have ever had, my coaches were great and I learned a lot."- Campbell, 13
